

Carefully graded stories

Level 1

Tina goes to a new school today.

Level 2

Your hair looks neat now.

Thank you, Rabbit!

Randy is happy.

Level 3

Ben takes a deep breath... But before he blows out the candles, Ben thinks for a while.

What shall I wish for?

Level 4

The children had everything ready. Andy covered the kitchen table with some old newspapers. Then Tina showed them what to do.

'You're so clever, Tina,' said Mark.

Level 5

'Oh, I'm good at swimming,' said Tina. This weekend is the swimming competition. I have a good chance of winning the 200-metre race.

'So you're a good swimmer. You've won some awards, haven't you?' asked Miss Blair.

'I've won three so far. Swimming is my favourite sport, but I have to practice a lot to be good at it,' replied Tina.

Level 6

Throughout the afternoon, the wind blew very strongly. Leaves and small branches flew all around. It was really wild!

'You two, come inside before it gets more dangerous!' shouted Ben's mother.

There was the sound of thunder, then a flash of lightning. It started to rain really heavily.

'We got everything inside before the rain started,' said Ben's father happily.

Diversified themes and intriguing plots

School days

Today, Ben's science teacher, Mr Jackson, asks the class to do a project about weather.

Say the tongue-twister.

The fish and the jellyfish

A fish and a jellyfish.

A jellyfish and a fish.

The fish is selfish.

The jellyfish is childish.

The fish says to the jellyfish, 'Don't be childish!'

The jellyfish says to the fish, 'Don't be selfish!'

Read the poem.
