

Answer key*Comprehension 2

- 1 I think Adam felt angry after he read the newspaper article. He said that he found it 'unacceptable' that we import so much food. (any reasonable answer)
- 2 i) T
ii) T
iii) NG
iv) F
- 3 i) rooftops
ii) vacant lots
- 4 i) a useful weapon
ii) the battle
- 5 carbon dioxide
- 6 more nutritious food
produce oxygen
absorb heat from the sun
create food for people
- 7 i) It is harvested before it is ripe.
ii) It loses nutrients during its lengthy journey.
- 8 urban farming can produce healthier food (any reasonable answer)
- 9 economic
- 10 hiring homeless people as labourers
- 11 to express his views on the benefits of urban farming
- 12 Yes, I think there is at least one disadvantage to urban farming. Because there are many cars in cities, there is also a lot of pollution. This may make the food grown in cities less healthy to eat. / No, I don't think there are any disadvantages to urban farming. This is a practice we must start doing immediately in order to protect the environment. (any reasonable answer)