Consolidation

You are writing an email to your teacher about the preparation of the Christmas party. Proofread your email. Underline the mistakes and write the correct words on the lines on the right.

Dear Ms Lee,

We have come up with a few ideas for the Christmas party. We will having the party on 19 December. It is the last day of school before we start our holidays. Regarding the time of the party, will we begin at around four o'clock in the afternoon? We think this is the best time, but we do change it if you want.

- (1) have
- (2) can/could
- (3) can

We have some ideas for things to do at the party. We could all singing Christmas carols together. We would also has a 'Secret Santa' gift exchange. All the students can bringing a small gift to school that day. I think it is going to been exciting!

- (4) sing
- (5) could
- (6) bring
- (7) be

We want to promote the party to the class so we will going to make a poster for it. The poster will gives the information for the party. For example, it will told everyone the time and date of the party. We are going to including some nice Christmas decorations on the poster to attract everyone's attention. I won't write a slogan for the party too. Our group is going to met again tomorrow. If you are happy with our suggestions, we would start to prepare everything.

- (8) are
- (9) give
- (10) tell
- (11) include
- (12) will
- (13) meet
- (14) can/will
- (15) Can/Could

Will you please reply by noon tomorrow? Thank you very much.

Yours sincerely,
