Your friend John has asked you for some advice. You are writing a reply email to him. Complete your email using the correct form of the words in brackets, 'should' or 'shouldn't' and words from the box.

don't be	remember	start	talk	try
give	sleep	stop	tell	worry

Dear John,

It sounds like you are really worried about a lot of things. Everything is not as bad as it seems though. You should be able to solve the problems (1) _____ (easy).

First of all, I'm sure you will make friends at your new school soon. (2) _____ to the classmates who sit next to you in class. You (3) _____ to be friendly. (4) _____ the conversation by asking them how they are doing. You'll have new friends in no time!

You also said that you're worried about your elder sister's behaviour. You said that she often talks to you (5) _____ (rude) and it makes you feel unhappy. You (6) _____ about it too much. Your sister will have the HKDSE this year so I think she is just feeling stressed out and being emotional. (7) _____ her more space when she seems upset. Wait (8) _____ (patient) and talk to her when she is more calm and relaxed.

I know you also think that one of your friends is trying to take drugs. (9) _____ him or her from doing so. You (10) _____ an adult about this immediately. Taking drugs is very harmful to us. If your friend is taking drugs, his or her health will be (11) _____ (bad) affected. It's also illegal!

Finally, you said you are tired and couldn't concentrate in class. It is a common problem for students in Hong Kong. (12) _____ too nervous. You (13) _____ for eight hours every night. (14) _____ that rest is important, after all. Also, try to meditate (15) _____ (calm) before you go to bed. It will really help!

I hope you'll find my advice helpful.

Love,
