Comparative and superlative adjectives

You are writing a short introduction for your school's basketball club. Read the information in the table and complete the introduction. Use the correct form of the words in brackets.

	Height (cm)	Weight (kg)	Age	Shot %	Defence rating
John Ma	152	45	13	41%	★★★★
Wilson Tang	154	42	14	49%	★★
Jeff Lee	170	65	14	56%	★★★
Mike Law	176	70	14	51%	★★★★★
Paul Leung	178	70	15	48%	★★★

Our school's basketball club is preparing for the Inter-school Basketball Competition in two weeks. It's (1) the biggest (big) basketball competition of the year.

John Ma is the point guard. He is (2) the youngest (young) player on the team. He is only 13 years old.

Wilson Tang, the shooting guard, is (3) slimmer than (slim) John. He weighs only 42 kg. He is good at shooting, but he is (4) the worst (bad) defender on the team.

Jeff Lee is the small forward. He is (5) heavier than (heavy) John and Wilson. He is (6) the best (good) shooter on the team, with a shot percentage of 56%.

Mike Law is the power forward. He is (7) taller than (tall) John, Wilson and Jeff. He has (8) the highest (high) defence rating on the team.

Paul Leung is the centre. His defence rating is (9) better than (good) Wilson's. He is also (10) the most senior (senior) student on the team.

I hope lots of students will come to the competition, cheer for our club and make our club (11) the most popular (popular) at the competition!

Adventure Quest World 4 Review

Adventure Quest World 4 is the fourth edition in the Adventure Quest World series. Many people asked me, 'What's new in this edition? What makes it (1) different from the other games in the series?'

Honestly, many elements in this game are (2) the same as they were in Adventure Quest World 3. The name of the king is still Ken and the country is still called Ever Kingdom. Even the items you collect are similar. As usual, notice that some items may look (3) alike, but no two items are identical. For example, the knight's sword looks (4) like the prince's, but they are not the same.

There are a few small differences in this game though. The previous games had over 100 monsters, while this one only has about 75. So, this game has (5) fewer monsters than previous games. Also, I thought I would need more than a week to finish the entire game, but it turned out that it took only five days. It took (6) less time to finish than I thought it would.

There is one really great quest that you must try. It is called 'The Heart of the Lion'. This quest gives (7) the most experience points of all the quests. Normally, when you finish a quest, you receive about 20 to 30 experience points. This quest gives you at least 50 experience points, so it's really worth doing. 'The Heart of the Lion' also has (8) the fewest monsters. You could hardly see a monster on your way to the exit of the maze! It does give (9) the least money of all the quests though. If you need to buy weapons and other items, you can redo this quest again and again, or try some other quests that give (10) more money than this one.

So, what is my opinion of the game? I love it! It is (11) as fun as any game I have played.

Using too much, too many, too little, too few and enough

You are writing an email to a cinema. Complete your email by underlining the correct words.

Dear Happy Time Cinema Manager,

I am writing to you to complain about a recent experience I had at your cinema.

First of all, I think that the snacks at the snack bar cost
 (1) (too many/too much) money. For example, a bar of chocolate costs more than $50. This is totally unacceptable. Also, the popcorn I bought was not even good. It had (2) (too many/too much) salt and not
 (3) (enough/too much) butter. It tasted weird.

Furthermore, there are (4) (too few/too many) good seats at your cinema. It is very difficult to see the screen from most of them. Also, you played
 (5) (too many/too much) ads before the film. There were almost 30 minutes of ads!

During the film, there were (6) (too few/too many) people using their smartphones. It was very distracting. Also, there were not
 (7) (enough/too much) loudspeakers in the cinema, so I could not hear what the actors and actresses were saying most of the time.

I needed to go to the toilet during the film. There was (8) (enough/too little) light in the aisles to see and I nearly tripped over someone. There were also
 (9) (too few/too little) toilets. I was in the queue for more than 15 minutes. To make things worse, there was not (10) (enough/too much) toilet paper. It was lucky that I brought a pack of tissue paper with me.

The only good thing I can say about my experience is that the seats in the cinema were at least comfortable. I had (11) (enough/too much) room to stretch my legs and relax.

I hope that you will consider making some changes in future to make your cinema better.

Sincerely,
(Student's name)

Consolidation

You have found some information about three restaurants. Read the information and complete the email to your cousin. Underline the correct words and fill in the blanks with the correct form of the words in brackets.

	Kelly's Diner	The Big Bistro	Little Italy
Set dinner price	$98	$148	$188
Location	Tuen Mun	Wan Chai	Tsim Sha Tsui
Type of food	American	French	Italian
Promotions	None	None	Free drink refills
Service charge	5%	10%	15%
Food rating	★★★★	★★	★★★★★

Dear Mike,

We can go to one of the following restaurants for your birthday.

Kelly's Diner has (1) the cheapest (cheap) set dinner price of all three restaurants, while Little Italy is (2) the most expensive (expensive) of the three. Their food is pricey, but it's (3) the closest (close) to your home in Mong Kok. Kelly's Diner is (4) the farthest/furthest (far) away.

None of the restaurants are (5) (alike/like). Kelly's Diner serves American food such as hamburgers. The Big Bistro is (6) (different from/the same as) Kelly's Diner because it serves French food. Finally, Little Italy serves Italian food.

At Little Italy, customers can get free drink refills, which means we'll always have (7) (enough/too much) drinks! Ha! Ha! Kelly's Diner doesn't have any promotions. The Big Bistro is (8) (different from/the same as) Kelly's Diner in the sense that it also doesn't have any promotions.

One of the bad things about Little Italy is that they have a 15% service charge. I think that's (9) (enough/too much)! The service charge at Big Bistro is (10) lower (low), while Kelly's Diner has (11) the smallest (small) service charge of all.

Reviewers gave The Big Bistro (12) (the least/the most) number of stars, which means it had (13) the worst (bad) food. On the other hand, Little Italy had (14) the best (good).

In my opinion, Little Italy seems like a good choice for your birthday, but it might cost (15) (too many/too much) money. In that case, we could go to Kelly's Diner as it didn't receive (16) (too many/too much) complaints.

Cheers,
