Prepositions

You are having a party at a restaurant. You are writing an email to your friends telling them how to get there. Complete the email with the correct prepositions.

Hello everyone,

There are a few different ways to get to the restaurant. One way is to go there (1) by bus. Take bus no. 103 and get off at Elizabeth House. (2) From the bus stop, walk (3) along Percival Street for about 10 minutes and you can find Causeway Bay Plaza 1. Go (4) into the shopping centre. Use the lift to go (5) up to the sixth floor and you are there.

If you live on Hong Kong Island, you can get there (6) by tram. Get off the tram at Percival Street. You need to go (7) across the street to get there. Walk (8) up the footbridge and you can reach there in a minute.

You can also go there (9) by MTR. Get off at Causeway Bay station and take Exit B1. Of course, if you live nearby, you can just come (10) on foot.

See you all soon!

Conditional sentences about possible situations

You are writing a brochure about Hong Kong tourist attractions for a class project. Complete the brochure with the correct form of the words in brackets.

Tourist attractions in Hong Kong

There are many tourist attractions in Hong Kong. Here are a few of our favourites:

★ Hong Kong Wetland Park

If you (1) are (be) a nature lover, you (2) must not/should not miss (not miss) Hong Kong Wetland Park in the northern part of Tin Shui Wai. You can have a closer look at the wildlife there. Make sure you keep quiet as you explore the wetland park. You (3) will/may scare (scare) the wildlife if you (4) make (make) a lot of noise.

★ Ping Shan Heritage Trail

If you (5) visit (visit) Ping Shan, you (6) will learn (learn) about the early lives of the people in the New Territories. You (7) will see (see) the city's traditional Chinese architecture if you (8) walk (walk) around the Tang Clan and Tsui Shing Lau Pagoda.

★ Ladies' Market

You (9) will love (love) the Ladies' Market if you (10) enjoy (enjoy) hunting for good bargains. If you (11) go (go) there, you (12) will find (find) many stalls selling different things, ranging from clothes and bags to mobile cases and batteries.

Dear Johnny,

I can't wait to see you in Hong Kong! I know you have some questions about Hong Kong, so I'll try to answer them below.

Yes, most people here have an Octopus Card. It's really convenient because we can use it to pay fares on public transport and at some shops.

If you (1) have (have) an Octopus Card, you (2) do not need (not need) to carry a lot of cash with you.

However, you (3) need (need) to top up your Octopus card if it (4) does not have (not have) enough stored value.

You also asked about transport arrangements during typhoons. Public transport still (5) operates (operate) if there (6) is (be) a typhoon signal number 1 or 3. If the Hong Kong Observatory (7) issues (issue) a typhoon signal number 8 or above, public transport (8) runs (run) on a limited schedule. Remember to check the Hong Kong Observatory website or announcements on TV for the latest weather information.

Lastly, you asked about the departure time of the first MTR train every day. Let me tell you. The first train (9) starts (start) at six every morning if you (10) wish (wish) to start your journey early.

Well, I hope I've answered your questions. Let me know if you have any more questions.

Love,

Dear Johnny,

How are you? Are you excited about your trip? I've got some ideas for what you can do on your second day in Hong Kong.

(1) First, you can have breakfast at a cha chaan teng. There's a famous one opposite your hotel. Just walk (2) across the street and you can have a taste of freshly baked egg tarts and pineapple buns!

(3) Next/After that/Then, you (4) can/may explore (explore) Lantau Island if you (5) want (want) to see a different side of Hong Kong. Take the MTR to Tung Chung and walk to the cable terminal. (6) From there, you can go (7) to the famous Big Buddha and Po Lin Monastery (8) by cable car. The Ngong Ping 360 cable car ride offers amazing views of the city. I'm sure you'll love it! However, make sure you check the website of Ngong Ping 360 before going there. Cable car service (9) stops (stop) if the weather (10) is (be) bad.

(11) Next/After that/Then, you can visit Tai O Fishing Village (12) by bus. Take a stroll (13) along the waterfront when you get there. You'll see many stilt houses that are home to the Tanka people. I suggest you hop on a boat so that you can see these houses more clearly. If you (14) are (be) lucky, you (15) will/may spot (spot) some Chinese Pink Dolphins during your boat ride.

(16) Finally, don't miss the beautiful sunset when you leave Tai O!

What do you think of my ideas? Let me know.

Love,
