Happy food art

By Lisa Ng

① When my older daughter went to primary school, she missed me very much. To cheer her up, I decided to make some special lunch boxes.

② I didn't have any ideas in the beginning, so I followed other people's ideas, such as putting rice balls with panda faces in a plate of curry. When my other daughter saw her sister's lunch boxes, she also asked for them.

③ Then, I started designing my own lunch boxes. I made them look like cartoon characters.

④ Later on, I started a blog and put photos of my designs online. Last month, I made my own cookbook to teach people how to make interesting dishes.

⑤ If you think cooking is boring, check out my blog! I'm sure you can rediscover the fun of cooking!
