Dear LonelyP,

Thanks for your email. I'm sorry that you're feeling low. It can be difficult being a teenager. Remember that many teenagers feel lonely and sad at times too.

5 Bullying is very serious. No one should make fun of others or hurt them. You should talk to an adult about this. You should also speak honestly to your teachers about your schoolwork. Tell them about the things that you find difficult.

Hidden youths do stay in their room all the time. You should 10 try to leave your room every day for a short time. Why don't you go for a short walk?

Good luck! I'm sure that things will get better soon.

Best,

15 Jamie Woo
