If you ticked three or more boxes, you might be addicted to social media.

Text 2 Email

Dear Fairy Godmother,

My wife Cinderella spends hours taking selfies and sharing them on social media websites every day. When we go out to eat, she takes photos of every dish we eat and posts them on social media websites. Then she keeps checking the number of likes on her phone instead of talking to me. I feel bored and lonely. I don't know what to do.

Next month, we're going to a party. The party lasts for six hours. I hope she can talk to me and our friends instead of playing on her phone. Could you please help?

Yours sincerely,
Worried Husband
