

Name: _____ () Class: _____ Date: _____

Your parents are planning a family trip to South Korea. You are reading information about the country. Read the itinerary for a day tour in Seoul, and the postcard from your cousin who has just visited Seoul.

Text 1 Web article

Anyone can be a hero!

home life health | beauty

① Roisin Smith does not look like a hero. However, to another little girl called Lucy, Roisin is the biggest hero in the world.

② In 2015, Lucy discovered that she had cancer. She was only nine. The medicine she took made her hair fall out.

③ One day, four-year-old Roisin saw a picture of Lucy. She wanted to give Lucy some of her hair to help make a wig.

④ After talking to her parents about it, Roisin cut off 23 cm of her hair. The hair was donated to a charity called Little Princess Trust. Roisin's kind act was noticed in the news. She used her popularity to raise money for charity.

⑤ Roisin is an example for us to follow. A simple act of kindness makes you a hero! If we are all charitable like Roisin, the world will be a better place.

Simplified reading and comprehension

Unit 2

Name: _____ () Class: _____ Date: _____

Comprehension 1 Your teacher wants to know if you understand the article. Read the article and answer her questions. Fill in the blank or choose the best answer and blacken the circle.

Complete the profile of Roisin below.

Profile
Name	(1) _____ (First name) (2) _____ (Surname)
Age	(3) _____ in 2015
Charity that the hair was donated to	(4) _____
Length of hair donated	(5) _____

6 Read line 9: 'After talking to her parents about it ...' The word 'it' refers to _____.

- A cutting off hair C a picture . A B C D
B medicine D a wig O O O O

7 Little Princess Trust is a charity that _____.

- A cures cancer patients
B cuts children's hair
C gives wigs to children suffering from cancer A B C D
D dresses girls up as princesses O O O O

8 If we are all 'charitable' like Roisin, the world will be a better place. 'Charitable' means _____.

- A friendly C popular A B C D
B kind D uncaring O O O O

9 The message of the article is that _____.

- A everyone should cut off their hair
B only well-known people can make a difference
C Roisin is a real princess A B C D
D we do not have to be powerful to be someone's hero O O O O