

Answer key

Comprehension 1

- 1 because he wanted to catch/capture his enemy
- 2 Cameramen: They can film our amazing/spectacular scenery.
Producers: They like Hong Kong's welcoming attitude towards businesses/pro-business attitude.
Stunt doubles: They get to show off their martial arts skills.
Costume designers: They can dress actors in clothes that fuse/mix Chinese and Western styles.
- 3 we are thrilled/proud/excited that people around the world can see Hong Kong (any reasonable answer)
- 4 American audiences
- 5 mediocre
- 6 He/She assumes that they knew very little about Hong Kong because he/she says they 'couldn't even find Hong Kong on a map' and wouldn't know how 'ridiculous' it was for a character to walk all the way from Yau Ma Tei to Aberdeen. (any reasonable answer)
- 7 how anything is possible in Hollywood's version of Hong Kong
- 8 (i) exotic
(ii) suited/suitable
(iii) romance
(iv) action
(v) crimes
(vi) futuristic
(vii) sci-fi
- 9 II E
III C
IV A
V F
VI B
- 10 B

Oxford English (Second Edition) 3A

Further simplified reading and comprehension

2 of 2

Unit 3

11 Yes, I think the writer likes Hollywood studios making films in Hong Kong. He/She wrote that he/she enjoys seeing his/her city on the big screen. He/She also wrote that seeing Hong Kong in Pacific Rim made him/her feel honoured. (any reasonable answer)

- 12 i) perched
ii) expertise
iii) flick
iv) romanticized
v) free rein