

Answer key

Comprehension 1

- 1 A
- 2 D
- 3 4
2
1
3
- 4 D
- 5 (i) A single test can take weeks.
(ii) Tests yield conclusive results only 30 per cent of the time.
- 6 i) T
ii) F
iii) NG
- 7 a) DNA analysis
b) i) We leave DNA everywhere we go. (any reasonable answer)
ii) Every individual's DNA is unique. (any reasonable answer)
- 8 (i) (multiple) murder
(ii) Simpson's blood
(iii) Blood and hair
(iv) unreliable
(v) damaged
(vi) innocent/not guilty
- 9 Donald Smith: A Forensic scientist: C
The victim: B Police detective: E
- 10 The Donald Smith case shows that forensic science, when applied correctly, is very important in solving crimes. (any reasonable answer)
- 11 William Mak is reluctant to predict the future of forensic science because technology is developing rapidly.
- 12 B
- 13 i) derive

Oxford English (Second Edition) 3B

Further simplified reading and comprehension

2 of 2

Unit 7

- ii) yield
- iii) scepticism
- iv) reluctant