

Answer key

Comprehension 2 & 3

- 1 i) daily life on the International Space Station (ISS)
ii) astronauts' missions
iii) scientific experiments performed in space
- 2 A Space Broadcaster might face potential workplace hazards such as equipment failure or space debris hitting and damaging the space station, all of which could be life-threatening.
(any reasonable answer)
- 3 (i) ISS
(ii) 6/six
(iii) astronauts
(iv) clean
(v) interviewing
- 4 I think some training is done underwater because the conditions underwater are similar to those in space. (any reasonable answer)
- 5 D
- 6 In my opinion, the most difficult part of the job would be the workplace hazards, as any small accident or mistake could endanger your life on the ISS. Also, I think it would be a very difficult job as you would be busy all the time with various duties and would not have much time for yourself. (any reasonable answer)
- 7 D
- 8 D
- 9 (i) technician
(ii) smartphone
(iii) 2/two
(iv) designer
(v) AirAuto
(vi) 3/three
- 10 Yes, I think Gemma has good IT skills because she has a master's degree in Computer Science and has worked at jobs related to computer programming. (any reasonable answer)

11 B

- 12 i) resides
ii) shift
iii) equivalent
iv) keen