Definite and indefinite articles

Your mother is very busy today, so she has left you a note with some chores she would like you to do. Complete the note with the correct definite and indefinite articles. Write an 'X' if no article is needed.

To-do list

- It's (1) a scorching hot day today. Please check (2) the plants and remember to water them thoroughly.
- Please make sure your little brother eats a snack after he gets home from school. The doctor said he needs to gain (3) X weight. Maybe you can make him (4) an egg sandwich.
- Look after your grandmother. She's not feeling well. Cook her a simple dinner with (5) the leftovers we didn't finish yesterday night.
- Take Fluffy for a short walk in (6) the evening. Give her (7) a treat if she is a good girl.
- Go to (8) the convenience store downstairs and buy me (9) a bag of almonds.
 We're going to bake (10) an almond cake tomorrow! You may get yourself
 (11) an ice cream cone too if you like.
- I'll probably be home late tonight. You can order a pizza for dinner. (12) The phone number is on (13) the fridge.
- Don't forget to finish your (14) X homework.
 Thanks for helping out around the house. You've always been helpful, my dear.
 Love,

Mum

Personal pronouns

You are writing a diary entry about your family's visit to Ocean Park. Complete your diary entry with the correct personal pronouns.

Dear Diary,

Today was a great day full of fun and excitement for my family!

This morning, Dad and Mum took me on a bus to Ocean Park. When (1) we arrived at the park entrance, there was a long queue. I couldn't believe how many people I saw. (2) They were all queuing up to buy tickets. Dad told us not to worry because (3) he had already got our tickets online. So, it didn't take too long to get into the park.

First, we saw lots of different types of marine life. I really liked watching the seals swim. I wished that I could jump in the water and join (4) them because it was such a hot day. One of the trainers got a seal to come up out of the water. She asked me, 'Do (5) you want to feed the seal?' She gave me a fish and I threw (6) it into the seal's mouth. How interesting!

After looking at all the different animals in the morning, Dad suggested that we get a bite to eat. Mum ordered a gigantic hamburger, but (7) it was too much for (8) her to finish.

(9) She asked if I wanted to eat some. However, after looking at so many pretty animals earlier, I didn't want to eat any meat. So I just enjoyed a fresh green salad. So Mum shared the burger with Dad and he finished it quickly. The burger was just a piece of cake for (10) him.

In the afternoon, Mum and Dad wanted to ride roller coasters. I felt a bit anxious, but Mum encouraged (11) me to give one a try anyway. After the ride, Dad bought a photo of all three of (12) us screaming on the roller coaster. The look of excitement on our faces says it all. We were all smiling from ear to ear. Looking at this lovely photo, I couldn't help saying to my parents, 'I really love (13) you! We had a lot of fun today!'

(14) Lan't wait to visit another theme park soon!

You interviewed an alumnus for a school career project. You made a transcript of the interview, but some words are missing. Complete the transcript by writing the correct form of the words in brackets.

Interview with Sally Wong

- Q: Hello Sally, Thank you for joining the interview. What is your job?
- A: My pleasure. I (1) am (be) a pilot.
- Q: (2) Do you enjoy (enjoy) this job?
- A: Oh yes! I adore my job very much. I (3) travel (travel) around the globe and meet many interesting people. You should see my photo album for many great photos from six different continents!
- Q: Wow! That is amazing! There are not many women in this profession though. (4) Is (be) there any difficulty for you to be a female pilot?
- A: Um, not really. Sometimes people (5) are (be) surprised to find out what I do. But no one is ever mean to me about it.
- Q: Do your parents support your decision to be a pilot?
- A: Absolutely! My Mum (6) knows (know) that flying is my childhood dream and (7) encourages (encourage) me all the time. My Dad (8) does not/doesn't show (not show) any disagreement. But I know he loves me. He always (9) misses (miss) me when I need to travel on long-haul flights.
- Q: I know you have a little dog at home. (10) Does he ever go (go) with you abroad?
- A: Sometimes he comes with me. But he usually stays with my family while I'm away. He likes Mum a lot because she really (11) spoils (spoil) him with lots of food and toys. Ha! Ha!
- Q: (12) Are (be) you satisfied with your career? What are your dreams for the future?
- A: I (13) am not (not be) disappointed with my job now. But I really (14) want (want) to fly in space one day.
- Q: That's a great dream, Sally! You are truly a role model! I think from now on I am more determined to become a pilot in the future.

Adverbs of frequency

You are a member of the Cooking Club. The President of the Club has given you a survey about how often you do different activities related to cooking. Look at your survey and complete the report with adverbs of frequency.

How often do you ...?

	0 times a week	Once a week	2–4 times a week	5–6 times a week	Every day
attend cooking classes			✓
buy cookware	✓
buy groceries		✓
cook meals				✓
find new recipes online			✓
host a cooking party at home	✓
invite friends to try my dishes		✓
make desserts		✓
make fresh orange juice				✓
prepare snacks					✓
wash the dishes					✓
watch TV shows about cooking				✓

- I (1) always prepare snacks and I (2) often/usually cook meals for myself. But I (3) seldom buy groceries because my mum does that for me. I (4) often/usually watch TV shows about cooking and I (5) sometimes find new recipes on the Internet.
- I (6) sometimes attend cooking classes because I always want to learn more about cooking.
- I (7) seldom make desserts because it takes a lot of time to make delicious ones. However,
- I (8) often/usually make fresh orange juice because it is healthy. I (9) seldom invite my friends to try my dishes because I am afraid they are not interested in my cooking. Also, I (10) never host cooking parties at home but I wish to do so very soon. I (11) never buy cookware because I don't have any spare money for it. But one thing is always true—to be a good boy, I (12) always wash the dishes after dinner.

You want to do some voluntary work at a veterinary clinic. Complete your email of application with definite and indefinite articles, personal pronouns, adverbs of frequency and the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

Dear Sir/Madam, (1) I would like to apply for (2) the position of Voluntary Assistant which was posted in an advertisement on my school's volunteer bulletin board. I (3) am (be) a hard-working student with (4) a caring personality. I also love animals of all kinds. My family (5) has (have) a cute little kitten and (6) an energetic fun-loving dog at home. They (7) are (be) both so adorable. I am so eager to look after and play with (8) them all the time. I just (9) never get bored with animals. It (10) is (be) my job to do exercise with our dog Ralph every day. That's why I (11) always go out with him. Sometimes I (12) brush (brush) him in the morning. But I (13) often/usually do it in the evening, almost five times a week, because brushing him after his evening bath makes him happier. My father and I (14) take (take) Ralph to the veterinarian once a year for his annual check-up. Ralph (15) does not/doesn't like (not like) it, but I know it is important for his health. (16) Do you want (want) to know more about (17) me? I am happy to answer all of your questions. I look forward to hearing from (18) you soon. Yours faithfully, (Student's name)
