Countable and uncountable nouns

Your grandmother felt ill. She called and asked you to help her do some grocery shopping. Complete the conversation using the correct form of the nouns in brackets.

Grandma:	(cough) Hello? Is it Benny? Can you hear me?
Benny:	Yes, grandma. Are you okay? Is everything all right?
Grandma:	My dear boy, I've caught a cold and feel a bit unwell. Could you help me do some grocery shopping today?
Benny:	Certainly! What do you want me to buy for you?
Grandma:	I'd like to make congee, but I don't have enough (1) (rice). Could you go to the supermarket and buy a bag for me?
Benny:	No problem! Let me note that down.
Grandma:	I'd also like to have something handy to eat for breakfast. Could you buy two (2) (loaf) of bread and some (3) (butter)?
Benny:	Right. Do you want something to drink?
Grandma:	Oh! Yes, I do. Could you get two cartons of (4) (milk) for me? And your uncle drinks (5) (coffee) every day, so don't forget to get him a cup on the way home.
Benny:	Good. Anything else?
Grandma:	Perhaps you could see if there are some fresh vegetables and fruit. I'd like to have three (6) (tomato), a pack of (7) (mushroom) and a bunch of (8) (banana). Try to look for a few
	(9) (peach) and (10) (strawberry) too. Your aunt loves eating them so much.
Benny:	Sure! Eating fruit is important. An apple a day keeps the doctor away.
Grandma:	Oh, and please remember to get two (11) (box) of (12) (salad) and a dozen (13) (egg) as well. Lastly, it'd be great if you could get two serving (14) (tray). They will be useful for our upcoming family party.
Benny:	All right! I've noted down everything. I'll go to the supermarket today and do the shopping for you. Take care, grandma!
Grandma:	Thank you, dear.

Talking about quantities

You are writing a play script about a family in Hong Kong. In this scene, a girl and her brother are talking about what food and drinks they have in the kitchen. Complete the play script using 'how much', 'how many', 'some' and 'any'.

	Scene	2
	(In the kitchen)
	Lucy:	Mum is making a grocery list for shopping this afternoon. She asked us to see what we already have in the kitchen.
	Neil:	All right, let's do it!
	Lucy:	So, (1) apples are there in the fridge?
	Neil:	Let me see. Hmm I don't see (2) apples.
	Lucy:	OK, so we need to get some. How about milk? (3) milk do we have?
	Neil:	There is (4) left, but not much. We should get another carton,
	_	otherwise we won't have (5) for our breakfast tomorrow.
	Lucy:	Fine. How much cheese is there?
	Neil:	I see (6) cheese. In fact, there is plenty of it.
	Lucy:	Good. (7) pieces of bacon are there? You know Dad loves to eat bacon for breakfast. He's crazy for bacon!
	Neil:	Uh oh! There isn't (8) bacon. It's all gone.
	Lucy:	Let me write that down. What about eggs?
	Neil:	Well, there are (9), but I'm not sure if that's enough for you.
	Lucy:	(10) are there exactly?
	Neil:	There are three eggs.
	Lucy:	Great! (11) coffee is left in the tin?
	Neil:	There is still (12) left. I'd say about half a tin.
	Lucy:	Good Oh, (13) bread is there?
	Neil:	There's none here. We don't have (14)
	Lucy:	All right, I'll let Mum know. Thank you, Neil!

Consolidation

Your friend wrote a short story about a friendly alien who came to visit Earth. However, there are some mistakes. Cross out the mistakes and write the correct words on the right.

1	Something strange happened in the New Territories on 2016. Not many people
2	know this, but an alien visits our planet that year. Here is the story.
3	One night, a girl named Alice was walking home from school. Suddenly, she see
4	a bright light flash in front of her. When she opens her eyes, there
5	were an alien standing in front of her. 'Hello, my name is Todd,' the alien said.
	'Don't be afraid. I'm a friendly alien. Nice to meet you.'
6	Alice trys to speak, but she was too scared to say hello to Todd.
	So, she did not say anything. 'I'm dreadfully hungry,' Todd went on.
7	'How much books do you have with you? Could you give me all the books you have?' 'Books?' she replied in wonder. 'Yes, books. On my planet, we love eating
8	books! Aren't they delicious?' 'Um, I don't have some books you can eat,' she
9	spoke nervously. 'I need them to finish my homeworks. But if you need books,
10	you can buy any in the bookshop over there,' Alice pointed outside the window.
11	'How many do they cost? Are they expensive? I need a lot of them,' Todd said.
	Here, I have ten thousand dollars with me. Is that enough? Todd asked.
12	'I think you can buy any amount of books you want with that much moneys!'
13	Alice laughs cheerfully. 'I can't wait for that!' Todd said excitedly.
14	The next morning, Alice take Todd to the bookshop immediately.
15	As they walked into the bookshop, Todd felt energised. He buy so many books
16	that he needed five boxs to carry them all. Soon after, Todd left Hong Kong and never came back. The next day at school, Alice wanted to tell everyone
17	what happened. 'You won't believe what happened to me tomorrow,' she
18	said to her friends. And she was right. No one believe a single word from her!
