Text grammar Modal: should

You volunteer at a call centre for troubled teens. You are reviewing the transcripts of some of your calls but some of the words are missing. Complete the transcripts using 'should' or 'shouldn't' and the words from the box. One word will be used twice.

ask	listen	misuse	relax	stay	text
do	make	put	sit	take

Mavis:	My best friend is having a lot of family problems. He often quarrels with his parents now. I think he has started taking drugs. I want to help him but I don't know what I (1) should do.
Volunteer:	Drug abuse is a very serious problem. No one (2) should take/do drugs. You should talk to your friend to find out if he's really picked up this habit. If so, you (3) should ask him to start seeing a counsellor. He may soon become a drug addict if nobody helps him. You (4) should not/shouldn't sit back and do nothing.
Jamie:	My parents took away my mobile phone. I use it all day to send and receive messages, check my social media and take lots of selfies. I want it back!
Volunteer:	It sounds like you're addicted to your mobile phone. Your parents will give it back to you once you show them that you can use it sensibly. How can you do that? Well, you (5) should not/shouldn't text with your friends so often. Also, you (6) should put away your phone at mealtimes. I'm sure your parents just want to spend some quality time with you. Finally, you (7) should not/shouldn't take so many selfies. Everything should be in moderation.
Thomas:	I have a big exam tomorrow. I worry that I'll fail. I must study all night. Does that seem like a good idea?
Volunteer:	You (8) should not/shouldn't stay up too late. You should get plenty of rest the night before an exam. Also, you (9) should relax a bit. If you still feel stressed at bedtime, you (10) should listen to some relaxing music.
Peter:	Umm, there's an alien in my bedroom. It's got really big eyes. I don't know what to do. (sound of laughter)
Volunteer:	You (11) should not/shouldn't make prank phone calls. You (12) should not/shouldn't misuse this hotline!

Adverbs of manner

You are writing a diary entry about your day. Complete the diary entry using the correct form of the words from the box.

accidental	good	happy	heavy	perfect	strange
angry	guilty	hard	ironic	simple	sudden

Dear Diary,

What a bad day! Everything started out (1) perfectly normal. I got ready for school and ate my breakfast (2) happily. It was still early and I was taking my time. While I was eating, I got a text message from my best friend Tom. I checked my phone and (3) suddenly realized that it was actually thirty minutes later than I thought. I ran downstairs quickly to catch the bus, but I just missed it. Then, it started raining (4) heavily, but I didn't have an umbrella. I got soaked from head to toe and I was late for school! When I stepped into the classroom, I even fell (5) accidentally and hurt my knees.

Things didn't get any better as the day went on. First, the Maths test was quite difficult. Although I tried very (6) hard, I couldn't figure out a lot of the answers. I'm sure I didn't do it (7) well. As I handed in the test paper, I thought (8) guiltily that I should do revision more often.

Later, I got into some trouble in my Science lesson. Mr Lee reacted (9) angrily when he thought I was using my mobile phone during his lesson. He scolded me. I honestly told him that I hadn't used my mobile phone, but no matter what I said, he (10) simply didn't believe me.

Finally, I went to the Drama Club meeting as usual. When I entered the theatre, all the other students stared at me (11) strangely. I didn't know what was wrong, so I asked them what was going on. They told me (12) ironically that I looked very special. But then I noticed a long piece of toilet paper was sticking to my shoe. How embarrassing!

I'm really exhausted after this terrible day! I hope I have a sweet dream tonight.
